

Energy is Our Job: premiere of the film about MKC Group of Companies

December 22, 2022

Engineer's Day - the employees of MKC Group of Companies discoursed of who the power engineers are, whether they are really a special breed of people, how important this industry is for the region, the country, and the world, and finally, what the energy industry will be like in 50 and 100 years. The premiere of the company film Energy is Our Job took place on December 22.