Pavel Titov, President of Business Russia, sent a letter of gratitude to CEO of MKC Group Director Maksim Zagornov

April 13, 2021

Pavel Titov, President of the All-Russian Public Organization Business Russia, sent a letter of gratitude to CEO of MKC Group of Companies Maksim Zagornov. In his address, the head of the country's largest business association noted the significant contribution of MKC Group to the development of the small-sale distributed power generation industry and the creation of conditions for reducing energy costs, and congratulated the company's staff on its 16th anniversary.

> On behalf of the All-Russian public organization Business Russia, please accept our sincere congratulations on the 16th anniversary of the company! MKC Group of Companies is one of the most striking examples of the development of Russian business in the real sector of the economy and in the field of innovative energy technologies.
> It is nice to know that a member of our organization is an enterprise that implements distributed generation technologies that help Russian businesses to reduce energy costs. We wish your company further successful development, prosperity, and confidence in the future!

In addition, I would like to express our gratitude for your personal contribution to the activities of our Organization as Chairman of the Subcommittee on Small Generation and Business Ambassador of Business Russia to the UAE.

We are confident that with your experience, dedication and professionalism, you will be able to do much more for the development of the Russian economy and the prosperity of Russian entrepreneurship.

Pavel Titov, President of the All-Russian Public Organization Business Russia.
